THE NORTH CHIMES

Learning to live the love of Christ

Hymn of the Day: Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Today, we continue our summer series, "Sing the Faith." Each week we'll take extra time to appreciate and learn from one of the great hymns of the faith. On this Sunday, we will sing our song of faith with Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

In 1752, a young Robert Robinson attended an evangelical meeting to heckle the believers and make fun of the proceedings. Instead, he listened in awe to the words of the great preacher George Whitefield, and in 1755, at the age of twenty, Robinson responded to the call he felt three years earlier and became a Christian. Another three years later, when preparing a sermon for his church in Norfolk, England, he penned the words that have become one of the church's most-loved hymns: Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace."

Using imagery of Christ as the giver of living water and the shepherd gathering his sheep back into the fold, this hymn reminds the worshipper of the ever bountiful grace of God. Like Robinson, we too are "prone to wander," and are quick to seek redemption through our own power. But God continues to bring us back from our wandering, until, songs of praise on our lips, we dance forever before the mount of His redeeming love. From hymnary.org)

How to build community . . .

Turn off your TV
Put down your phone
Leave your house
Know your neighbors
Look up when you are walking
Greet people ● Sit on your stoop
Plant flowers ● Use your library
Play together
Buy from local merchants
Share what you have
Help a lost dog
Take children to the park
Garden together
Support neighborhood schools
Fix it even if you didn't break it
Have pot lucks ● Honor elders
Pick up litter ● Read stories aloud
Dance in the street
Talk to the mail carrier

Listen to the birds ● Put up a swing
Help carry something heavy
Barter for your goods
Start a tradition ● Ask a question
Hire young people for odd jobs
Organize a block party
Bake extra and share
Ask for help when you need it
Open your shades ● Sing together
Share your skills ● Take back the night
Turn up the music
Turn down the music
Listen before you react to anger
Mediate a conflict
Seek to understand
Learn from new & uncomfortable angels
Know that no one is silent
Though many are not heard work to change this Always seek common ground
